Customer Disputes

If a customer can prove that they were unable to receive an offer that they were entitled to at a partner merchant's store or online shop, they may be eligible for a refund or redressal according to the following process:

- The customer will write an email to the issuing bank stating the issue.
- The email should include the partner merchant's name, as well as the date, time and location of the purchase.
- If available, the customer should attach a copy of the disputed bill.
- The issuing bank will forward all details to Visa (simorgan@visa.com).
- Visa will work with the supplier to confirm and resolve the issue with the said partner merchant.
- If the dispute is valid, the partner merchant will refund the wrongly credited amount or issue a voucher towards the customer.
- Visa and the supplier will work with the partner merchant to settle the issue and communicate to the issuing bank within 72 working hours of query raised.
- The refund/redressal takes up to 10-15 working days.
